All allocations will be in pairs. There will be no exceptions to this.

If you are allocated tickets then you will be contacted by phone to take payment. Once tickets are paid for they cannot be exchanged or refunded by Coventry Rugby. No unsuccessful ballot applicants will be contacted, so if you are not contacted then assume that you have not been allocated tickets.

Tickets are issued under the terms and conditions of purchase from the Rugby Football Union. No re-selling is allowed under any circumstances. By completing and signing this form and in making payment, the purchaser hereby confirms that they understand and agree to these terms and conditions, which are available on the England Rugby website.
